

The Fur-Bearers' Mother's Day Crossword

Across

Down

- Nocturnal creature in Canada with mothers known for carrying their babies on their backs.
- This slinky fur-bearing mammal has large litter sizes of four to six kits.
- Agile mammal in Canada whose mothers teach their young to glide from tree to tree.
- Famously adaptable mammal in Canada whose mothers nurse their young in underground dens.
- Many wildlife mothers need to teach their young to do this to eat.
- Semi-aquatic mammal in Canada whose mothers raise their kits in dens near water bodies.
- An old-fashioned gift that compassionate mother's won't like.
- Show mom you care with a donation to The Fur-Bearers that sends them an _____.
- They love grubs, but are dependent on mom for the first four-to-six weeks of their lives.
- Arboreal rodent in Canada with mothers that care for their young in treetop nests.

- Ecosystem characterized by extensive grasslands and few trees, found primarily in southern Alberta and Saskatchewan.
- Mother's Day Month.
- Semi-aquatic mammal in Canada whose mothers nurse their pups underwater.
- Mother en Francais.
- A common gift for mom that you can grow to help ecosystems flourish.
- Carnivorous mammal in Canada that mothers raise in family packs, teaching them hunting skills.
- Latin for Mother.

Show mom you care while helping protect wildlife across Canada by sending a special Mother's Day eCard! Scan the QR code here or visit TheFurBearers.com/Mothers to get started! Donations are eligible for a Canadian charitable tax receipt.

SCAN ME