

Did you know that each time wolves have babies, there's as many as 4 to 6? That's a lot of sharing at dinner time! Colour this little family anyway you'd like and ask your parents to tag @furbearers if you post it on Instagram!

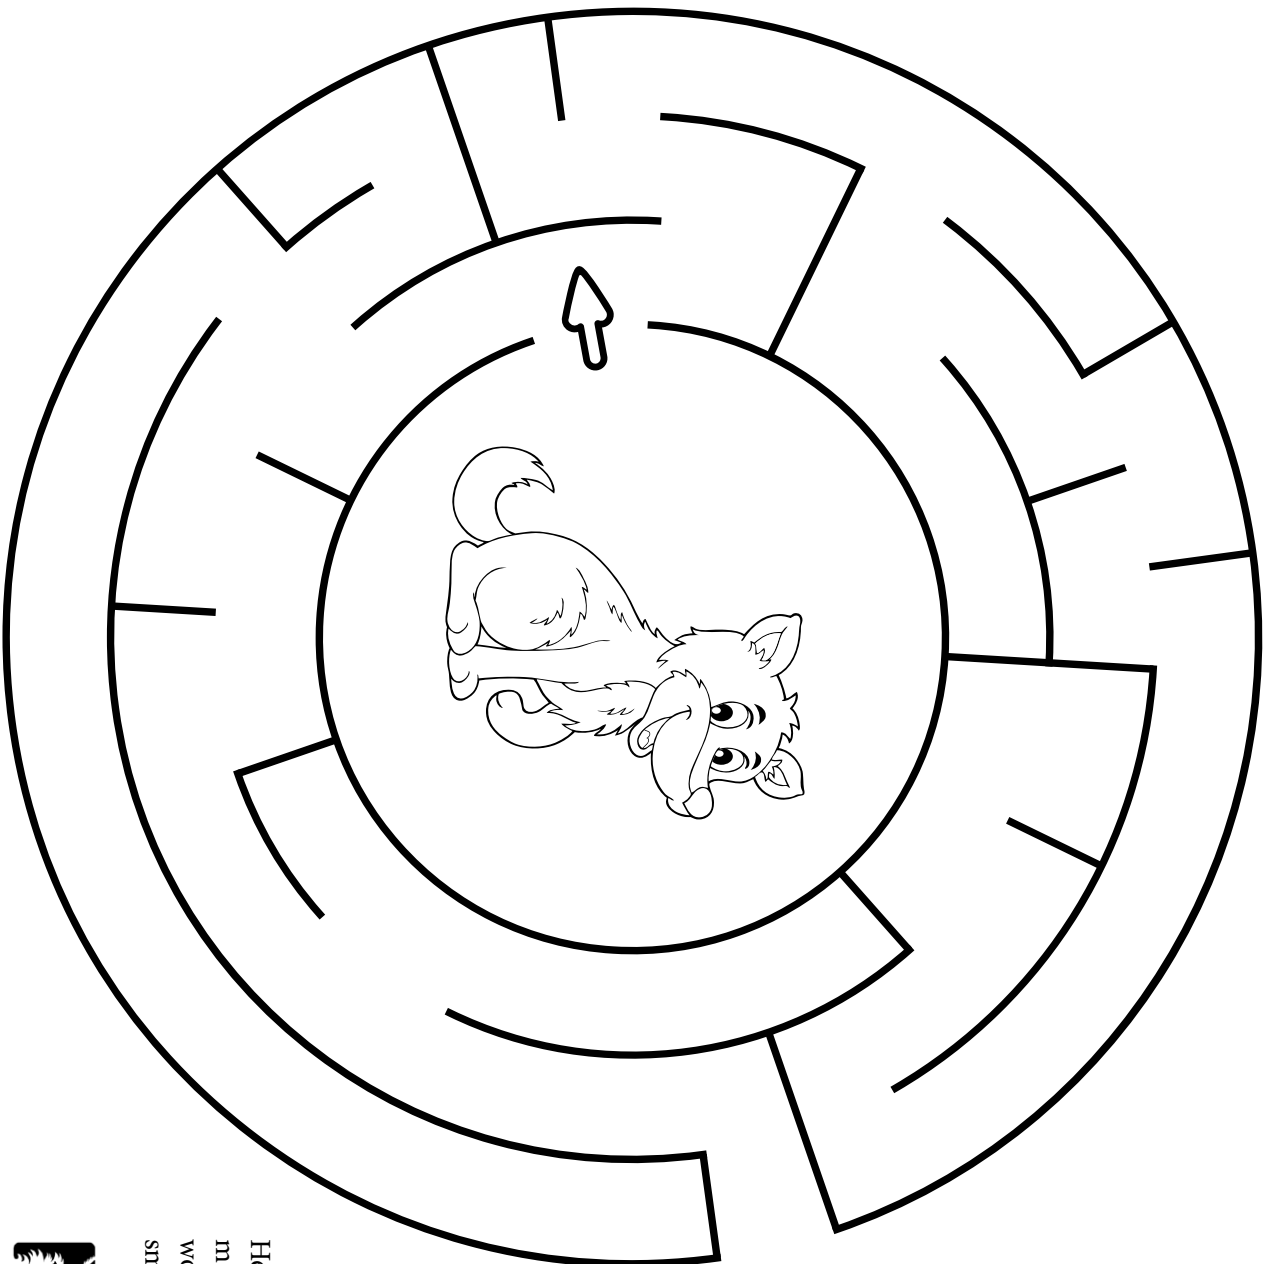

Connect the dots then colour in this wolf! This wolf is on their own, but did you know wolves in Canada live in families (called packs) of 2 to more than 30? Most wolf packs have 5 to 8 members though. Is that bigger or smaller than your family?

Enjoy this activity and remember to tag @furbearers if you post online!

Help this little wolf pup find their way through the maze to get back to their mom! Did you know that wolves have an incredible sense of smell? They can smell other animals who are over 1.5 kilometres away!

Circle the words in the puzzle above that you find in the following list. All of these words relate to wolves. Do you know what each one means?

PACK
PAWS

WOLF
GREY

HOWL
FOREST

WILD
TAIL

CARNIVORE
FURRY

Print out and colour this howling wolf any way you'd like! Remember to ask your parents to tag @furbearers if they post your art on Instagram.

Did you know wolves don't really howl at the moon? Howling is a way to call the whole pack or family together, let other members of the pack know where they are, and to keep wolves who aren't part of the pack out of their territory.
