Terms

Applicants will be contacted via email by The Fur-Bearers Scholarship Evaluation Committee to advise of the decision. If awarded the scholarship, the recipient must complete a BeaverCorps application from the Beaver Institute. Acceptance into the BeaverCorps program is decided by the Beaver Institute. Upon confirmation of acceptance, The Fur-Bearers will arrange tuition payment with the Beaver Institute.

Once the course is completed, applicants are requested to contact The Fur-Bearers to provide a brief summary of their experience and their plans to resolve human-beaver conflict. By submitting your application, you agree to allow The Fur-Bearers to post your name, province or territory, and a brief testimonial on The Fur-Bearers' website once you have completed the program. This information may also be shared through other The Fur-Bearers' communications including social media posts and email and print newsletters.

By submitting this application, you agree to the terms indicated above.
